bride will spend their honeymoon in the Sapphire Country of North Carolina.

Lane-Young.
On Wednesday next, October 21st, the wedding of Miss Mattie Beverly Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Young, to Mr. Spencer Lane, son of Captain and Mrs. Winder Lane, of Williamsburg, will be celebrated in St. John's Church, Hampton, the Rev. Reverdy Estill, D. D., officiating.

The color scheme of church decoration will be carried out in white and green, palms and flowers being used with artistic effect. Miss Lillian Whiting Young, the bride's sister, will be maid of honor, and her aunt, Mrs. Charles J. Faulkner, wife of former Senator Faulkner, of West Virginia, will be matron of honor. Mr. Macaulay Bright will be best man.

The group of bridesmaids will include Misses Hallie Gatewood and Margaret Smith, of Washington; Lucy Lamb, of Norfolk; Lila Chisman, Lotta Segar, Kate Whiting, Mary Williams, and Mrs. Richard Armstrong, of Hampton.

The bride will come in with her father, and will be gown in princess and en train in white liberty satin, with a loose panel of princess lace. Her veil will be caught with orange blossoms and she will wear the groom's gift, a rope of pearls. Her flowers will be a shower of lilies of the valley tied with white tulle.

The maid of honor will be attired in white messaline trimmed with lace, and have a Directoire sash of liberty ribbon with heavily fringed ends. The matron of honor, considered one of the handsomest women in the South, will wear white satin, hand-embroidered in white and gold, and falling in tunic folds, with an over train of the satin. The bridesmaids will have on white messaline frocks with Nile green chiffon sashes. They will carry white chrysanthemums tied with green tulle.

On account of the death of the bride's aunt, the reception will be limited to the bridal party, the immediate family and out-of-town guests. Among those to be present will be Senator and Mrs. C. J. Faulkner, Captain and Mrs. Strother Smith, Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Hallie Gatewood, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Lamb, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. Denison Cole, the Misses Morecock, Captain and Mrs. Winder Lane, Dr. Davis, Mr. J. B. C. Spencer and Mr. Savage, of Williamsburg.

Returned From Conference.
Mrs. Claude A. Swanson returned Friday from Petersburg, where she was the guest of Mrs. Alexander Hamilton and a participant of the delightful hospitalities extended by hostesses of the Cockade City to the Daughters of the American Revolution conference visitors.

An informal reception at the Elks' Home, Petersburg, on Tuesday evening was followed by a handsome formal affair on Wednesday. Thursday visitors were taken in trolley coaches to old blanford Church and the Grater. After the conference adjourned members attended a reception at the Southern Female College by Mrs. A. K. Davis, in honor of her house guests, Mrs. Albert H. Tuttle and Mrs. James Higginson, of Charlottesville.

Before going to Petersburg Mrs. Swanson had as her guest, Mrs. John Swanson, of Danville.

Thanks Returned.

The Retreat for the Sick wishes to thank all of those who, by generous gifts, made the Retreat Lunch Booth a success at the recent State Fair.

St. John's Circle to Meet.

An important meeting of St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will be held to-morrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. C. W. Massie, No. 4721 East Broad Street. Delegates to the annual convention of King's Daughters will be elected.

The John Smith Monument.

The John Smith monument given to the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan will be unveiled at Jamestown Saturday, October 24th. The exercises attendant upon the unveiling will begin promptly at 12 o'clock, and last about two hours.

The opening prayer will be made by the Rev. Braxton Bryan, of Petersburg, and the address by Mr. Almond Blaw, of Bellville, Gloucester county. A short speech of acceptance on behalf of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will be delivered by the Hon. J. Taylor Eliason.

Little Master Joseph Bryan, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan, will unveil the monument. The party going from Richmond to Jamestown will take the 9 A. M. train to Williamsburg. Vehicles will be waiting in Williamsburg to convey them to and from Jamestown, at a moderate price. The return to Williamsburg will be made with allowance for dinner at either of the hotels there, and time to see historical points of interest in the colonial capital.

All the members of the association and the public at large are cordially invited to attend.

The train coming back to Richmond will leave Williamsburg about 6 o'clock P. M.

Miss Derby Returned.

Miss Minnie Derby, a piano graduate of the Conservatory of Music in Cincinnati, who went abroad to study with success in Berlin and Venice, has returned to Richmond, and will shortly give a recital which will be a musical event. The date will be announced later.

Weldon Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WELDON, N. C., October 17.—The young ladies of Weldon gave a most enjoyable musical Thursday evening at the public school auditorium. A delightful feature of the evening's entertainment was the assistance given by Miss Nellie Lyons, of Richmond, who is always a favorite in musical circles here.

Wednesday morning, Miss Nannie Hunter, of Brinkleyville, was united in marriage to Mr. Edgar R. Wells, of Greensboro, at the bride's home. Miss Nina Vinson played the wedding marches and the ceremony was performed by Rev. W. L. Harris. Miss Myra Hunter acted as maid of honor, and Mr. Harry Wells, a brother of the groom, was best man. After a visit to Washington, Baltimore and Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Wells will be at home to their friends in Greensboro after November 1st.

Miss Jeannette Daniel is spending the week with friends in Raleigh.

Mrs. Clayton Bound spent this week with relatives at Emporia, Va.

Mrs. H. A. Willis, wife of the pastor of the Baptist Church here, left Friday to visit her former home at Bowling Green, Va.

Rev. J. D. Huffman, of Henderson, one of the most distinguished Baptist ministers in North Carolina, spent several days this week in Halifax county.

Miss Julia Rhem, who has been spending the summer in the mountains of North Carolina, has returned home.

Raleigh Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

RALEIGH, N. C., October 17.—Into no week in the whole year is so much of social life crowded as into State Fair week in Raleigh. And there was never a State Fair week characterized by such a social whirl as the one just closed. The festivities of Goldsboro, Miss Bessie Hinton, with Mr. James McKee; Miss Rubie Morris, with Dr. Joel Whitaker; Miss Josephine, with Mr. Thomas O'Berry, of Goldsboro; Miss Causse, with Mr. John Andrews; Miss Minnie Causse, with Mr. Harry Lee; Miss Hannah Ashe, with Mr. Dawson; Miss Lily Ferrall, with Mr. G. S. Cannon; Miss Pearl Heck, with Dr. Shore; Miss Betsy London, of Pittsboro, with Professor Smith; Miss Mary Armistead, Jones, with Mr. W. A. Graham, Jr., of Richmond; Miss Nannie Settle, with Mr. W. H. Allen; Miss Rachel Settle, of Greensboro, with Mr. Woodard; Miss Augusta Willey, of Louisville, Ky., with Mr. Albert Cox; Miss Nannie Rogers, with Mr. Gordon Harris; Miss Katharine Boylan, with Mr. Wright Dixon; Miss Jessamine Grant, of Burlington, with Mr. Louis Smith; Miss Cribbs, with Mr. C. L. Mann; Miss Margaret Boylan, with Mr. W. H. Pace; Miss Dee Duncan, with Dr. Lewis Peggam, of Dunsmuir; Miss Francis Lacy, with Mr. L. N. Boney, of Wallace; Miss Louise LaMar, of Florida, with Mr. Gordon Smith; Miss Willa Norris, with Mr. Francis Cox; Miss Louise Wright, with Mr. Richard Johnson; Mrs. S. F. Telfair and Mrs. Alex. Cooper, with Mr. Frank Haywood; Mr. and Mrs. Atkins Roberts.

The lady marshals' leap year ball Thursday night was a brilliant affair, unique and delightful in every way. It was given by the lady marshals of the fair, popular young society women from every part of the State, to the active gentlemen marshals. The names of the ladies participating and acting as hostesses for the affair will be of interest. They follow: Miss Josephine Boylan chief marshal, and Misses Katharine Boylan, Willa Morris, Louise Lamar, Margaret Boylan, Louis McDonald, Rubie Norris, Dee Duncan, Louise Wright, Emmie Drewry, of Raleigh; Rachel Settle, of Frankford, Conn.; Louise and Clither Carr, Gertrude Winston, of Durham; Lyman Grimsley, of Greensboro; Betsy London, of Pittsboro; Margaret Blandina Springs, Louise Stewart, Sarah Jones, Sadie Norris and Nancy Brown, of Charlotte; Helen Strange, Sue Brent Prince, Mary Ella Moore, Florence Kipper, Virginia Bailey, of Wilmington; Isabel Clark, Bell Nash, of Tarboro; May Boyden, of Salisbury; Jessamine Grant, of Burlington, Ky.; Lily Watt Penn, of Reidsville; Nell and Lottie Skinner, of Greenville; Irma Bailey, of Winston; Bonnie Broadfoot, of Fayetteville; Mary Benbow, of Greensboro; Kate Winston, of Hartwood; Louie Tallaferra, of Charlotte; Payne Kilpatrick, of Kinston; Olivia Lamb, of Henderson; Lucy Robertson, of Charlotte; Alice Spruill, of Rocky Mount; Ola Brown, of Concord; Annie Plumber, of Washington; Jessie Crowell, Marion Slocumb, of Fayetteville; Genevieve Cooper, Leah and Mary Perry, of Henderson; Annie Land, of Kinston; Lora Ferrell, Frankie Haynes, Grace Whitaker, of Winston; Mariah Webb, of Hillsboro; Bessie and Margaret Bridges, of Wilmington; Mary Foster, Ione Scott Graham, Kate Horner, of Oxford; Louise and Cante Venable, of Chapel Hill; Sophie Wood, C. C. Capeheart, Eliza Drane, of Edenton; Estelle O'Berry, Elizabeth Borden, of Goldsboro.

Colonel and Mrs. Benham Cameron entertained delightfully Tuesday evening in honor of Hon. Thomas Nelson

Page, who was here to deliver the address for the annual session of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association. The affair was limited to a circle of friends who were also intimates of the distinguished guest.

Mrs. M. T. Norris was hostess Tuesday night for a theatre party and supper that proved a most charming occasion for quite a party of young society folk.

Mrs. W. C. Riddick was the hostess this week for the Tuesday Afternoon Literary Club the past week, and her delightful home in West Raleigh was thronged with club women and their friends from four to six o'clock.

Raleigh was represented this week at the annual session of the North Carolina United Daughters of the Confederacy by Mrs. Leo. D. Heatt, Mrs. R. H. Brooks, Miss Sue Taylor and Miss Daisy Denson.
